Okay. I just wanted to make sure we weren't missing an email that you were sending us. I see now that the message you sent was at the time of the call.

Glad that you were able to reconnect using a cell phone. Thanks.

Hi Sherry,

I was letting you know that the phone line was disconnected in our teleconference this morning. We were able to reconnect over the cell. We later learned that the telephone outage was because of a fiber optic line break between wausau and merril that affected most of northern wisconsin. This outage also affected email, and I suspect the message did not get to you until the fiber optic was fixed.

Kristen,

I'm not sure what you might have wanted to send to us but we didn't get either an email message or an attachment.

Sherry
